6 UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
WESTERN DISTRICT OF WASHINGTON
7 AT SEATTLE

8 UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

9 Plaintiff,

10 v.

11 ELIJAH R ESPINOZA-ZIMMERLE,

12 Defendant.

CASE NO. 18-419 BAT

DETENTION ORDER

13 The Court has conducted a detention hearing under 18 U.S.C. § 3142(f), and concludes 14 there are no conditions which the defendant can meet which would reasonably assure the 15 defendant's appearance as required or the safety of any other person and the community.

16 FINDINGS OF FACT AND STATEMENT OF REASONS FOR DETENTION

17 Defendant is charged with a drug trafficking offense and faces a mandatory ten year
18 sentence if convicted as charged. The government proffered defendant is involved in one of the 19 largest drug conspiracies in the Eastern District of Washington. Defendant's parents and siblings
20 are also involved in the conspiracies. Some of defendant's relative have fled and are currently 21 fugitives. Defendant's involvement in the offense is significant and he allegedly helped distribute
22 large amounts of controlled substances. As this matter is pending in another federal district, this
23 order is entered without prejudice.

It is therefore ORDERED:

(1) Defendant shall be detained pending trial and committed to the custody of the Attorney General for confinement in a correctional facility separate, to the extent practicable, from persons awaiting or serving sentences, or being held in custody pending appeal;

(2) Defendant shall be afforded reasonable opportunity for private consultation with counsel;

(3) On order of a court of the United States or on request of an attorney for the Government, the person in charge of the correctional facility in which Defendant is confined shall deliver the defendant to a United States Marshal for the purpose of an appearance in connection with a court proceeding; and

(4) The Clerk shall provide copies of this order to all counsel, the United States Marshal, and to the United States Probation and Pretrial Services Officer.

DATED this 12th day of September, 2018.

BRIAN A. TSUCHIDA
Chief United States Magistrate Judge
